

Women in Islamic finance Monday 19 May 2008

We are pleased to report that a seminar on 'Women in Islamic Finance' will be held in London next Monday 19 May. As you know the woman has traditionally played a primary role in the finance and trade in the Muslim world and nowadays some of the most important trusts in the Gulf are run by women

If you have specific questions or wish to receive a feedback please contact our president Alberto Brugnoli that will participate to this seminar that, to our knowledge, is the first devoted to this often misunderstood topic

You can find its programme at the following url:
