

April 2009

ASSAIF is pleased to announce that its associate Marco Mauri has co-authored "Economia e finanza islamica. Quando i mercati incontrano il mondo del Profeta". This thorough study is set to become the reference book for Islamic finance in Italy. Please refer to the English section of our web site for further information: <http://eng.assaif.org/>

Marco, a Sharia-compliant investment banker in Bahrain, well represents a group of professionals that true to the Italian Middle Age banking tradition are spearheading innovative transactions both in London and in the Gulf

Sincerely,
